Read Text C, *Walking in the jungle, in the insert and then answer Questions 2(a)–(d) on this question paper.

Question 2

(a) Identify a word or phrase from the text which suggests the same idea as the words underlined:

(i) The very loud noise of the waterfall.

..... [1]

(ii) Maria keeps turning around very quickly to point out crocodiles.

..... [1]

(iii) Some of the group bravely and willingly cross the river without footwear.

..... [1]

(iv) Maria walks at a quick pace.

..... [1]

(b) Using your own words, explain what the writer means by each of the words underlined:

Howler monkeys groan from treetops on either side of the river. We also pass a temple with dark tunnels where fruit bats huddle and squeak above us, and eventually reach a wide shaded area where 30-metre-tall trees share space with temples well over a thousand years old.

(i) groan [1]

(ii) huddle [1]

(iii) shaded [1]

- (c) Use one example from the text below to explain how the writer suggests what the jungle coffee was like.

Use your own words in your explanation.

To demonstrate, she chops off an arm-size branch of a native tree, letting us sip the sweet, running sap. She whittles the bark and boils fragrant shavings of the branch, soon producing a bubbling gold broth. 'Jungle coffee,' she says. I have two cups' worth. It's delicious.

Re-read Text C, Walking in the jungle, in the insert and then answer Question 3 on this question paper.

Question 3

You are Maria. You are interviewed for a television programme about people with interesting jobs. The interviewer asks you the following three questions only:

- What do your clients particularly enjoy about the jungle trip?
- What skills and qualities make you a good guide?
- How do you advise your clients to prepare for the challenges of the jungle?

Write the words of the interview.

Base your interview on what you have read in Text C, but be careful to use your own words. Address each of the three bullet points.

Write about 250 to 350 words.

Up to 15 marks are available for the content of your answer and up to 10 marks for the quality of your writing.
