SOURCE A

Zulfikar Ali Bhutto was a skilful politician. His strength was said to be foreign policy because of his vast knowledge of world history and awareness of the different problems of many countries. This enabled him to develop strategies that brought enormous benefits for Pakistan. Dr Henry Kissinger (US Secretary of State 1973–1977) described Zulfikar Ali Bhutto as a man of extraordinary ability, capable of making strong relationships with any country that was able to help Pakistan.
